

God Moves on the Water

#04

God moves on the water. April the 14th day
God moves on the water. Everybody gonna run and pray

Well, Titanic left Southampton
Everyone aboard was gay
But when they struck that iceberg
Well, I know their minds was changed

Well, the mothers told their daughters
On a pleasure trip they'd go
But when they struck that iceberg
Well, they ain't been seen no more

Well, they were coded by a freight boat
Captain Smith did not take heed
He would not hear that wireman
And he went on with greatest speed

Well, foreman John Jacob Astor
Was a man so bold and brave
As the great ship was a-sinking
All the women he was trying to save

When he kissed his wife the last time
The boiler did explode
He pushed her on the lifeboat
Said, "I won't see you no more"

Well, the Fourteenth day of April
Nineteen hundred and twelve
Well, a thousand and six hundred
Went down below to dwell
